GENERAL BUTLER State Resort Park

General Butler State Resort Park, located along I-71 between Louisville and Cincinnati, is a fitting tribute to one of Kentucky's foremost military families. Named for General William Orlando Butler, the military fame of the family spans from colonial time through the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War and the Civil War. The lookout was built by the Civilian Conservation Corps in the early 1930s.

GENERAL BUTLER GOLF COURSE

This well-maintained, 9-hole course is very hilly so be prepared for some extra exercise if you are walking. The course challenges you with greens that are flat and fast, and with rough that is deep in certain areas. The most demanding hole is #8, a 330-yard, par 4, requiring a tee shot from a ridge onto the fairway below, and then an approach shot onto a 5,400-square-foot green with plenty of contour. There is an additional set of men's tees that can be used when playing an 18-hole round.
